

KIDS AND SANTA—Old Saint Nick came trooping into class last Thursday at Garden Village School, much to the delight of the kiddies. He talked to kindergarteners first, posed for a picture with Teresa Carrasco and Skip Cauchi, then proceeded to the upper grades, where he passed out candy. First graders went into spasms of glee upon receiving their sugared goodies, sugared treats. In fact, they liked the Jolly Old Elf so much they lent their voices to song, with a pepped up rendition of "Rudolph The Red Nosed Reindeer." If there had been a popularity contest staged at the school, that day, old Santa would have won it hands down.

Plans made for mental health center

County officials will coordinate plans this week for the establishment of a Mental Health Center in North San Mateo County.

Officials earlier said the location would be in Daly City, however, several sites are being considered. A building has to be purchased. The project is expected to get underway by the middle of January.

A preventive community psychiatric program, envisioned by its designers as fulfilling requirements of advanced mental health concepts is in store for North County.

The two men who carry the administrative responsibilitiy for meeting the mental health needs of the county are Dr. H. D. Chope, Director of the Department of Public Health and Welfare and Dr. Joseph J. Downing, program chief of the Department.

As pin-pointed by Dr. Chope, the area to be served by the proposed new center will include the cities of San Bruno, South San Francisco, Brisbane, Bayshore, Colma, Daly City and Pacifica. Current plans call for administrative integration of the existing Pacifica clinic into the new service, although the clinic itself will continue to be based in Pacifica.

According to the 1960 Census, the area to be served had a population of 148,789. "This population now approaches 170,000 due to extensive home developments, and a population ranging from 250,000 to 300,000 is expected by 1968," Dr. Chope said.

In outlining the character of the new center, Dr. Downing disclosed intensive studies were made to produce a program that will be among the most modern of its kind in the world. "In designing this advanced program, we consulted with experts from the State Department of Mental Hygiene, the Harvard School of Public Health and the National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH)," Dr. Downing revealed. "Through NIMH we have also discussed our plans with authorities from England, who supplied valuable information about local community psychiatric concepts now being tried in their country.

"In this North County region there is a definite sense of common social problems and common identity, and a growing pressure for preventive and remedial services," Dr. Downing said. "The issues of juvenile delinquency, family disorganization and breakup, alcoholism and severe mental illness are among the top priority problems to which the center will address itself. Its contribution will be made in cooperation and direct collaboration with Public Health Nursing, Adult and Juvenile Probation, Social Service, the schools, law enforcement agencies and local voluntary agencies."

In fact, Dr. Downing explained, the initial work of the new center will concentrate upon developing effective consultative relationships with all those now actively engaged in meeting the social and health needs of the North County region. "A major part of the program will be in mental health education and in working with mental health volunteers," he pected said.

Final unification vote slated for January 9

School district unification in northern San Mateo County will be thrashed out — again — next month.

On Jan. 9 representatives of the Jefferson Union High School District and the Jefferson Elementary District, along with school board officials from Brisbane, Bayshore and Laguna Salada, and the San Mateo County Committee on School District Organization will wrestle with the question of what districts will be unified.

The January meeting of this augumented committee will be the eighth and final one on consolidating the five districts.

Deadlock

The issue has been teeming with difficulty and deadlock for months over questions of boundaries, size school financing and taxation.

Prime force to divide the high school district and unify Jefferson Elementary alone or with Brisbane and Bayshore has been Thomas Noonan, chairman of the Jefferson Elementary District Board of Trustees.

In opposition to the division is the board of the high school district who want to see the elementary configuration conform to the union high school area.

Noonan has argued that such a unification would be the largest in the State of California and "would make the eventual (potential number of students) violate the maximum school population which we feel is desirable."

Objections

Laguna Salada representatives would like to see unification postponed until the state passes money bills giving schools more aid.

Mrs. Ruth Boudinot, Laguna Salada Elementary School Board president, has said that her district "would like to see itself unified when it is financially possible."

Population jumps over 60,000

Daly City will solidify its hold on second place in population in San Mateo County when a special census now under way is completed, according to Joe Arch, department of finance.

The census, under the direction of the state Finance department will be completed about Jan. 15, and will show a population of approximately 60,000 for Daly City. Redwood City with a 56,000 population will drop to third place with San Mateo still in first.

However, construction of homes and apartments in the Christen Lands will eventually make Daly City the largest. Present plans indicate that more than 21,000 persons will reside in homes in that area.

Radio tower complaint by neighbors

Three neighbors have lodged a complaint against a 55-foot radio tower erected by John L. Parris, 666 Skyline drive.

Irving Gilbert, 672 Skyline drive and Robert Moyer, 65 Wavecrest drive and Fernando Gusman, 71 Wavecrest drive, voiced opposition at a Dec. 17 planning Commission meeting from a safety point of view. They complained of interference on their telephones, which, however, was corrected with filters installed by the telephone company. They also felt that this tower was unattractive to a residential neighborhood.

The matter of a use permit for the town is to be held over until the next meeting.

Parris said the tower is to be used for radio receiving and transmitting primarily for

Hundreds complete Self Help course

On over 6,000 windows and windshields in San Mateo county a new message is being seen—"We are a Medical Self-Help Family."

Hundreds registered for Self Help Oct. 3.

Total registrants by local high schools: Westmoor, 119; Jefferson, 101; South San Francisco, 120.

Also El Camino, 86; Oceana, 70; Terra Nova, 68.

These families have just completed the first series in the Medical Self-Help program, startted in San Mateo county as a pilot project, and administered by the United Voluntary Services under agreement with the board of supervisors.

Each member of the 168 classes received a certificate of completion, a pocket identification card and the window sticker mentioned above. The identification card may carry personal information about the bearer, such as blood type, mention of dangerous allergies and any medical problems.

Based upon the successful "mass class" just completed at Hillsdale, the new series starting Jan. 13-16 will continue with large classes in high schools, which could go as high as 250-300, and taught by combination teams of doctors, nurses and experienced lay people. All authorities in the individual subjects will teach the classes, and experienced instructors from the first sessions will also participate.

Many families have heard from present participants how valuable this course is," said Mrs. Helen Lengfeld, administrator of the program, "and they are anxiously waiting for the second series starting in January."

Medical Self-Help teaches what to do if the doctor cannot come, designed for any emergency or major disaster (such as earthquake, flood, fire, nuclear attack and everyday accidents). 'Bookworm' turns thief

A San Francisco man, outwitted by two women, when he tried to take their car at the point of a shotgun, was captured in Daly City Dec. 18, when a woman reported a prowler.

John Thomas Ross, 37, 2444 Great Highway, still armed with the shotgun, was found outside a residence at 78 Seacliff drive.

The women are Joanne Lynne McConne, 18, of 1434 Chestnut street and Mary Amo, 20 1198 Laurel street, both of San Carlos.

Miss McConne told police she was parked in her car waiting for Miss Amo outside the latter's apartment when a man, later identified as Ross, came up with a shotgun.

Miss Amo appeared and, brushed him aside with a "don't be silly." The pair drove off, leaving Ross holding the gun at the curb. Police said Ross stole a pickup nearby.

When arrested, he offered no resistance, and told police he had been suffering from hallucinations brought on by long hours of study. He was booked for attempted armed robbery and car theft.

Population

plus several thousand more in apartments.

According to Arch, Daly City has already received "credit" for part of the population in the Bayshore area, annexed last summer and this has resulted in $23,000 in additional subventions from the state. This was based on registered voters in the Bayshore area and Daly City was credited with an additional 2,900 population as a result of the annexation.

It is believed that many of those living in the housing developments in Bayshore were not registered voters, and so no credit was allowed by the state finance department. These along with residents of new apartments in Westlake will be counted in the census. Arch said that as a result of the survey, Daly City should receive a total of $40,000 in state subventions.

A population census, made in 1962, showed the population of Daly City at 52,800, an increase of 8,000 over the 1960 census. This increase accounted for an additional $64,000 annually in motor vehicle and gas taxes for the city.

United Crusade is short of goal

The United Crusade will wind up its 1963 campaign with $11,109,698 contributed in cash and pledges, but approximately $300,000 short of its goal.

The total is $89,698 more than the amount donated last year, or 101 per cent of the 1962 drive's results.

The figures were announced yesterday afternoon (Thursday) to the Crusade's Bay Area executive committee by John R. Beckett, campaign chairman and Transamerica Corporation president.

"Unfortunately," Beckett declared, "this year's total is well below the absolute minimum needs of Crusade agencies as carefully determined prior to the campaign."

"This shortage places the entire Crusade and its agencies in a critical situation," he warned. "Over the past eight years, the annual campaign has ranged between $10,200,000 and $11,000,000. Taking all the agencies together, the total increase over that period has been well under 10 per cent."

"You know the advance that has taken place in our Bay Area economy in those eight years, including population growth with all its attendant social problems," he said. "A business could not continue indefinitely in the face of rising costs without a commensurate growth in sales and income. Neither can our human service agencies."

"We are deeply grateful to the many thousands of donors, including a number of large employee groups, who significantly increased their financial support of the Bay Area's major voluntary health, welfare and youth service agencies," Beckett said.

"Our 1963 total includes over $400,000 which came both from new contributors and from increased gifts from many regular donors," he said. "However, this increase was cancelled by the deaths of a number of outstanding donors, some business mergers and transfers and a few industrial disturbances this year."

He reminded the committee that the total reported includes a number of gifts still to be collected from donors who traditionally contribute toward the end of the year.

Beckett urged campaign workers to redouble their efforts to collect such funds and turn them in as soon as possible.

A final projection of the 1963 campaign totals reveals that two counties, Alameda and Marin, and two Bay Area divisions, state employees and military personnel, will end up at 100 per cent of goal or better, Beckett said.

Totals are: Alameda County, 100 per cent and $1,883,000; Marin 101 per cent and $157,000; the State Employees' Division, 100 per cent and $89,000, and the Military Division, 111.5 per cent and $327,000.

San Francisco will wind up at 96.8 per cent and $2,263,060, Beckett said. San Mateo will reach 96.2 per cent and $635,000 and Contra Costa, 95.8 per cent and $275,000.

Other projected campaign totals:

Major Firms Division, 98.2 per cent and $4,304,000; Advance Gifts, 91.6 per cent and $1,030,391; the Federal Division, 97.2 per cent and $104,000, and special projects including interest earnings—$42,247.

Unification

would consider the unification proposal favorably if the state gives financial assistance.

All of the other elementary school boards have voted against the union basing their objections on the unequal financial abilities of the districts.

Most of the objections have cited Pacifica's lack of industry and industrial taxes as an indication that to include Laguna Salada (which includes Pacifica) means a raise in Daly City taxes.

By law

A law—an addition to the Education Code — passed this year is designed to induce the unification of California school districts "so as to present a continuous educational program for grades K-12, and through grade 14 (junior college) where possible."

Included in this bill is an increase of some five percent in state aid to those schools who have unified in accordance with the county committee's recommendations of on unification.

Voter decision

In any case, local voters must make the final decision.

The augumented committee on unification can only recommend.

Radio tower

Civil Defense and other emergencies and the increase in height is required for a more reliable and far-reaching operation.

Robert Flickinger, assistant coordinator for radio communications for Civil Defense of the North Peninsula area, said the location is ideal for relaying messages. He stated it should not interfere with television, radio and telephone if properly installed and operated. He did say, however, that a television set having a weak tube may receive interference from this radio.

Flickinger added that a 24-foot horizontal boom is to be added to the tower.

Freeway plans

State adopts Pacifica route

The California Highway Commission has adopted a freeway routing for 2.2 miles of State Highway Route 229 in Pacifica between State Sign Route 1 and the Pacifica city limit at Sweeney Ridge.

The route adopted last week runs north for approximately a quarter mile from north of the Hewitt Ave. intersection with State Sign Route 1 curving to the east and crossing State Sign Route 1 south of Mori's Point Road.

It then proceeds in a general easterly direction to the Pacifica city limit at Sweeney Ridge where it joins a freeway routing through San Bruno adopted by the Commission in January 1963.

The route was recommended by State Highway Engineer J. C. Womack.

The recommended route and two possible alternates were discussed at a public hearing held by the Division of Highways in Pacifica on Sept. 18.

Plans call for the construction of a four-lane freeway with provision for future expansion to six lanes.

Estimated cost is $10,600,000 including rights of way.

Start of construction will depend on availability of future highway funds.

WE ARE PREPARED FOR THE NEW YEAR'S PROBLEMS

Operating a pharmacy is more complicated than in the past. Instead of having to stock a few hundred herbs and chemicals as in the past, we now have more than 4000 different prescription medicines in stock. The odds are that the ingredients in your last prescription were not known five or ten years ago.

We will continue to add new discoveries as soon as they are available, so we will be able to fill any prescription, even those prescribed by physicians in other cities.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. We deliver promptly to Daly City, Westlake and St. Francis Heights without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Daly City Lions Help a girl see

All Jong Sook Kim wanted for Christmas was to be able to see. Santa Claus needed many helpers to make her wish come true—a former all-American football star, an army general, a trans-Pacific jet crew, a skillful eye surgeon, a generous and sympathetic public and a group of Lions to fit all the parts together.

The shy 15-year-old Korean girl was headed for total blindness when she came to the attention of Dr. Bill McColl, a former star Stanford end who is now an orthopedic surgeon at a mission hospital in Taegu, Koreo. Dr. "Bill" knew that only the delicate surgery which was not available in Korea but which might be obtained in the United States could save the sight of her remaining eye. The other was permanently blind because the surgery performed on it had been unsuccessful.

McColl appealed to Brig. Gen. R. E. Peters and the general, remembering the charitable activity of the Lions Club when he was attending school in California, passed along the plea for help to the Lions of the Bay Area.

Fifty-five Lions Clubs in California and Nevada support and maintain the Lions Eye Foundation, which is housed at the Presbyterian Medical Center in San Francisco. The Daly City Lions Club is one of the member clubs, and together these Lions assumed all the cost of hospitalization and medical care for the young girl. Without charge, an eminent eye surgeon on the staff of the Presbyterian Medical Center performed the operation to reattach the retina which had become detached, leaving Jong Sook with only a faint, blurry vision.

Since the girl speaks no English it was necessary to send a companion and interpreter. Dr. Chung Sook Kim (no relative), a pathologist at the mission hospital in Korea, accompanied Jong Sook. Their round trip fare was paid through contributions by friendly people who quickly answered an appeal by the Lions made through newspapers and radio.

Although the picture taken at an Eye Foundation Board of Trustees meeting shows Jong Sook with her eyes downcast, she now opens her eyes and is quite proud of the prosthesis the Lions had made for her right eye. It is perfectly matched to her pretty left eye to which vision has been restored. Yes, Jong Sook Kim believes in Santa Claus and she loves the Lions.

Californa law describes ficticious pricing

According to Louis Lefkowitz, New York attorney general, "The best protection against fraud and deceit is an alert and wary consumer. This is true whether he be a purchaser of goods or services or a prospective charter flight passenger."

It is a matter of settled law that it is both deceptive and unlawful to advertise a fictitious "list price," "manufacturer's suggested price," "regular price" or terms of similar import when such prices are not in fact the "going retail prices" in the immediate area where the advertising appears.

California law states that "former" prices shall be the price at which the article sold in the immediate area within the previous three months unless a different date is specifically stated. It has also been held that the "former price" is the price at which the advertiser himself sold the same article in his store.

It is deceptive to advertise an article comparing its price with the "regular price" of an article in some distant city unless the facts are set forth by such a statement as, "this radio now $27.10 and formerly sold in Chicago in 1960 for $49.50." A wary buyer will be alerted, and by shopping around for radios he may find the same item locally for $24.95 unless it is a fair trade item.

It is also deceptive for an advertiser, with or without the collusion of the manufacturer, to represent to the buyer that by buying at the "bargain price' 'a certain saving will be made over the "former price" when in reality the advertiser never sold the item at the "former price."

Christmas Seals drive falls behind

The Christmas Seal campaign is falling far behind last year's, causing chairman Frederick W. Smith to come dangerously close to pushing the panic button.

"The situation is especially grave," Smith explained, "because the Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association operates on a strictly cash basis. Since the organization was founded back in 1936 (then called the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health Association) it has put all its Christmas Seal funds into programs each year to keep up with the expansion of the community. If we don't make up the deficit by March 31, we'll be faced with the critical problem of cutting services. I urge anyone who hasn't yet sent a donation to do so as soon as possible."

Smith said that the total returns on Friday, December 20 were $61,977 as compared with $73,714 on the same date last year. He added that five thousand of last year's contributors had not been heard from to date.

Begonia Society meets Jan. 8

The San Francisco Branch of the American Begonia Society will hold its regular meeting on Wednesday evening, Jan. 8, 1964, in the Recreation Room of the Garden Center in Golden Gate Park, Ninth Ave. and Lincoln Way, at 8 p.m. sharp.

Winter culture hints on soil preparation for the coming season and the storing and curing of tubers will be part of the program. There will also be a demonstration and a discussion on how to make flower arrangements.

Dolwig to serve on Revision commission

Senator Dolwig, who was chairman of the 1947-49 Joint Interim legislative Committee on Constitutional Revision as an Assemblyman, has notified the Joint Legislative Organization Committee that he will be pleased to serve on the 48-member commission created by the 1963 Legislature.

Purpose of the special commission will be to make suggestions to the joint committee on constitutional changes which might be recommended to the voters at some future election.

"The constitution, since its original adoption in 1879, has grown haphazardly until now it is 10 times as long as the United States Constitution. It contains much material which perhaps might properly be better handled through legislative statues, than constitutional law which must have a vote of the people to enact, amend or repeal.

"How far this streamlining should go will be the subject of considerable controversy. The conclusion we reached in the 1947-49 joint committee was that the basic document was still a pretty good framework for government of California, with some modifications."

Colma residents oppose flood control project

A petition filed by 50 residents of Colma opposing the formation of the Colma Creek Flood Control District has upset county board of supervisor plans to proceed with the project. The issue must now go to election in Colma, although the town council had recently agreed to the program.

County Engineer Don S. Wilson said the formation could proceed by omitting the small cemetery town which would make only a small monetary contribution but that would not be advisable. District Attorney Keith C. Sorenson will decide the legal steps necessary and the supervisors will make a decision early in January.

The board of supervisors last week approved a new contract with the San Mateo County Fair Association and the state to meet the deadline of Dec. 1, thus assuring the annual fiesta in August. The decision came after leading critics of the fair expressed fair board with five supervisorial appointments.

William Enemoto, head of the County Farm Bureau, told the supervisors that the present 16-man fair board was too large and the five additions would not improve the picture. He said the new appointees would be a minority group and would be useless. Supervisor E. R. McDonald, also a fair director, said the opposite was true, that the new members and their suggestions would be welcome. Enemoto agreed to go along with a one-year basis pending completion of a report by the special study committee.

Nominations to the committee were made by three supervisors: Supervisor Alvin S. Hatch; Robert E. Doss of Montara and Carl McCarthy of Pacifica; Supervisor William M. Werder; Berry E. Bygdnes of Atherton and George Pottorff of Portola Valley; Supervisor Chairman James V. Fitzgerald; Al J. Welte of South San Francisco and Herbert John of San Bruno.

Supervisors T. Louis Chess and McDonald said they were not ready to announce their appointees. The formation will be completed at the Jan. 7 board meting and the time will be set for filing of the report—probably August or September. County Manager E. R. Stallings will be chairman of the committee.

1963—an exciting year

As 1963 draws to a close Daly City can look back on an exciting year of growth. Annexations have been the big story—particularly the Bayshore district and Christen ranch lands. These have brought new population and tremendous areas for growth in the future.

We must commend the city council and city administration for their vigorous action toward the many problems which confronted them this year. Services to residents have been expanded, and still the city has been able to live within its resources. At the same time plans for the future, such as a new civic center, have been instigated.

With the new year, one long-time councilman will retire. Joe Verducci. He has served his community well, and his experience with the problems of Daly City will be missed. At the same time we look forward to the fresh viewpoints which the new councilman Albert Polonsky will bring.

Yes, 1963 has been a newsworthy year with great accomplishments; an even more exciting period is ahead of us.

Something for Everyone

By Samuel Chandler

Among the people who catch the Christmas spirit and pass it on are the editors of the nation's magazines. Usually characterized as a bad-tempered lot, these men reveal their real goodness in the Christmas issues. Even the New Yorker decorates its cover with a gay Christmas picture.

McCalls December issue has a childlike angel or an angelic child on the cover. Inside there is a Christmas prayer for a year of grace and a section entitled "Religious" gifts. Notable is an article, "Christmas at the Inn," which is illustrated with pictures and recipes. Among the other articles are Christmas stories, poems, fashions, and cartoons. The highlight, it seems to me, is a piece featuring two paintings of Christmas scenes by Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy.

Parents Magazine has an article entitled "Christmas breads" that makes your mouth water even though the pictures are in black and white. Ten other Christmas articles fill out the better homemaking section of this issue.

The December number of California Home is the essence of home sweet home with pictures to match. Among the articles are "Christmas is where the hearth is," "The festival of Christmas trees," "Holiday tables sparkling with color," and "Good eating through the holidays." This last article will have you licking your lips.

House Beautiful is devoted to holiday entertaining. It contains "Menus they'll remember," "Rare trifles to go," Dramatic parties," and "Decorations to stop the town."

Also filled with the Christmas spirit is American Girl, Vogue, Holiday, Seventeen, Sunset and many others. Even Salesman magazine is concerned with Christmas and article entitled "Money making holiday."

Ah, this is a time for reading.

Letters to the Editor

Editor:

Regarding Mr. Young Han Choo's letter in your Dec. 18 issue, I wish to say that he certainly hit the nail right on the head in regard to the so called "Rumford Fair Housing Act." I for one am opposed to any law that tells me how I must rent or sell my own property. I feel sure that the reason on there is so much opposition to putting this matter to a vote is because it would be defeated by a very large majority. I say that if the people desire to be told how to transact their private affairs, they'll vote that way. I frankly would rather make my own decisions in matters like this.

Sincerely yours,
Charles Williams,
205 Skyline Dr.

The following letters of commendation was received by the Daly City Fire Department commending the firemen for their actions.

Dear Men:

We, the Wallace family, want to thank the men of Fire Station #5 for their promptness, not because you men saved the life of my father who is 83 years old, although we are thankful of still having him with us, but for the fine work you men are doing as it was the second time you have been called to our home in one week. The other time was for the damage done by the wind storm. We want to thank you men again and hope you keep up the good work for our City.

We Remain,
Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Wallace

Dear Editor:

It is my hope that your newspaper commend by publication, the efforts of the employees and management of the local concern of L. Bocci & Sons for their contribution in giving a view to the many people who pass through our city, of many happy moments of the Holiday spirit.

I believe that the artistic display put up by the employees of this establishment, on their own and company time, contribute much joy to all, especially the children, everyday when hundreds stop and look at this fine display of the Yuletide season.

As a native-born citizen of Daly City and Colma, it is my hope that some consideration through your newspaper be given this firm and its employees for the yearly effort they put forth in constructing this display.

Please see for yourself, the effort of this group by visiting the site, across the street from L. Bocci & Sons, on El Camino Real in Colma.

Enclosed is a picture taken by myself, hoping that you may use it in your local Christmas edition.

Thanking you, I remain

ELEMENTARY, MY DEAR SENATOR!

The View From Behind the Badge

Written and Edited by Daly City Police Department

Christmas Cheer . . .

Christmas Eve is the crucial period in the holiday accident picture. Experience has shown that about twice as may people are killed on Christmas Eve as on Christmas Day.

A disproportionate number of drinking drivers are on their way home—many of them from office parties.

Studies have shown that on a year round basis, about thirty percent of all fatal accidents involve drinking drivers.

At Christmas, the percentage almost DOUBLES—about fifty-five percent of the holiday accidents involve drinking drivers.

In their haste to get home for Christmas, too many people are driving too fast for conditions.

Again, on a year round basis, about thirty percent of all fatal accidents involve speed too fast for conditions.

At Christmas, this percentage almost doubles — about seventy percent of all holiday fatal accidents involve speed too fast for conditions.

The period 6:00 p.m. to midnight Christmas Eve is the most dangerous time of the holiday. The six hours claim an average of twelve deaths an hour compared to an average of less than five deaths per hour for the next twenty-four hour period.

Happy Holidays . . .

We thank the public and the merchants for their gifts and participation in the Police Athletic League tournament this past year. Christmas week just seems the appropriate time to say "thank you."

Thanks to the merchants, of course, are largely for their generous cooperation with prize donations.

Thanks to the public is for both such donations and for participation as contestants in the tournament.

Thanks are to the Westlake Bowl for the use of the facilities and the coordination of the program.

Thanks are due to all, including participating policemen and P.A.L. coaches for their continuing help in this year round Christmas present.

Mary's Help . . .

We gave a Christmas present, too—in the form of a donation to the Mary's Help Hospital Building Fund. This was accomplished through individual contributions from the members which went to make up one donation from the Daly City Police Department.

This is a "thank you," too, in a way. It is a thank you for bringing a hospital to the city, particularly a hospital of such stature, and more particularly this hospital.

While many people are undoubtedly due thanks in this respect, our thanks go especially to Sister Hermine. This gracious lady is the driving force in the building drive. We hope that donations can be stimulated during this time of the year.

Although money is often in short supply for many of us in the commercialized Christmas season, we sincerely hope that the season of giving can and will be construed by many to extend to this project.

Humbug . . .

We will have a special detail working on Christmas Eve. We understand that a bearded, red suited roof burglar will be working. It's a strange case—this one leaves articles in the house rather than removing them.

TV and RADIO

By Mona Baker

Special recognition has come to television station KRON-TV for their recent documentary "The Changing Need" which showed the wide variety of human services financed through the United Crusade. Taking part in the documentary were the Albert McGuirk family of Daly City.

Last Monday afternoon, United Crusade president, Nils Eklund, presented the special award to KRON-TV General Manager, Harold P. See. Joining in the presentation were the two McGuirk children, Connie age five, and Mike, three years old. The presentation ceremony was telecast later on that evening over KRON-TV news. The children were also guests on the Mayor Art show.

"Assignment 4" which featured the special Crusade show is one of the outstanding documentary series telecast weekly over Channel Four. It is extremely well-produced and covers a wide variety of subjects of interest to everyone in the Bay Area. It is telecast every Monday evening at seven o'clock.

If Santa Claus didn't deliver a colored television set to your home this Christmas "beg or borrow" one and watch the annual "Tournament of Roses" parade to be telecast "live" and in color on New Year's Day. It is one of the most spectacular color programs seen during the year. Through the magic of color TV you can see eeach glorious blossom, each lovely girl's rainbow colored gowns —truly "living color" on the TV screen.

Shelley to meet with mayors of S. M. County

San Francisco's Mayor-Elect John F. Shelley will discuss mutual problems with members of the San Mateo County Council of Mayors at a meeting of the Council in San Mateo Dec. 30.

Mayor Joseph J. Verducci of Daly City will preside at the meeting in Villa Chartier beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Among the problems to be discussed informally are highway and air transportation, land reclamation, water supply, air pollution, assessments and taxation, parks and recreation, and sanitation.

Verducci, who is also Chairman of the Council, said in a note to council members that "the solution to these problems will determine whether we continue to build and develop harmoniously and in an orderly fashion, or wether we become bogged down in friction and bickering.

"Mayor-Elect Shelley's willingness to meet with us on this is proof of his concern and his desire to tackle these problems in the future so that we may work together for cooperative solutions," added Verducci.

From A Feminine Viewpoint...

By Mona Baker

The room was piled high with cartons neatly packed with canned goods—in the tricycle corner there were red tricycles and blue tricycles, big ones and little ones—in another corner boxes of games neatly labeled —several other cardboard cartons were gaily decorated with red crepe paper and drawings by children.

No, it wasn't toyland, but a room in the Central Fire Station and Daly City's own "Operation Santa Claus" which yearly brings Christmas boxes to deserving families.

This was the scene last Monday as the project was completed and the boxes were ready for delivery.

Many hours had been given by both individuals and organizations to prepare the boxes for distribution.

This year's job is completed and extremely successful it was too with over 300 children and 70 families receiving gifts and food.

There is another year ahead when there will be more toys to repair, more canned goods to collect, more volunteer hours to give.

During the coming months as your youngster outgrows a tricycle or bike put it aside until next fall. Then you too can assist when the call goes out next Christmas for donations for another "Operation Santa Claus."

Truly a dedicated worker in Daly City's "Operation Santa Claus" is our community leader this week. This is the sixth year that she has given many volunteer hours to assist with the project. She not only worked herself but each year gathered together volunteers to help sort and pack toys.

Other organizations in which she has been active is the Daly City employee union where she has served for five years on the executive board. She also was United Crusade chairman for the finance department.

She has served on various PTA committees and also helped with other community fund drives.

We salute Doris Rehe as our community leader of the week. A native daughter she has lived in Daly City all her life. The Rehe family, husband, Frank and daughter, Lynn, live at 20 Crestview.

A most impressive Christmas service was held last Wednesday at the Episcopal Cathedral in San Francisco. It was the famous service of nine carols and lessons observed in cathedrals and schools throughout the world. Participating in the traditional festival were 97 boys from the Cathedral School for Boys. Six local boys participated in the colorful service. They included Mark Davis, Butch Bonevito, Richard Morris, Pat O'Hare, Larry Jones and Steven Roberts.

FASHION '64: With the coming of the new year, new fashion trends are becoming apparent. What is in store for sixty-four? A new look on coats for one thing —short just over the hips length, many with double breasted styling and rows of six or eight buttons. Colors will range from winter white (just now high fashion) to brilliant pinks and yellows.

The table centerpieces were holly and the brilliant red windows of the elegant Friar Room cast a Christmas red glow as localites gathered for the annual Christmas party of the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce. Special guests included wives of the members.

In keeping with the spirit of the season familiar Christmas carols were sung by the Westmoor High School chorus. In their honor a beautifully decorated cake said "Merry Christmas to the Westmoor Hi Choir."

Adding sparkle to the proceedings was debonair Jack Kendres who served as master of ceremonies. He also presented a double violin concerto with Paul Hupf. Guest speaker was The Reverend Richard Fowler of St. Martin's Episcopal Church who spoke on the meaning of Christmas.

Several quotations from his talk we would like to leave with you because we think it is a most appropriate way to close a Christmas column.

Discussing the meaning of Christmas he said "the older you get the more it means if you know what it means." Another thought, "Christmas does not belong only to children, it grows older with us."

Festival of Lights dance Saturday

A Festival of Lights Dance has been scheduled by the congregation B'nai Israel for next Saturday night at Colombo Hall, 15 San Pedro Rd., Daly City.

The purpose of the dance is to raise funds to buy the additional land required by San Mateo county before their new Temple can be built.

Dancing will be to the music of Ray Clarefield and his orchestra from 8:30 to 1 in the morning. Among the door prizes will be a stay for two at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas for two nights and three days including meals.

Tickets may be obtained by calling JU 8-0800 or PO 2-2213 or by regular admission at the door. The general public is invited.

Herbert Yamron, president of the Men's Club, who announced the dance, said that it became necessary to move the location of the Temple when the former site was condemned to allow for a new freeway approach in Daly City.

According to present plans the new Temple B'nai Israel will be located at Annie and Washington Sts. in Broadmoor.

Christmas party and Silver Tea

The Women's Missionary Society of the Westlake Community Baptist Church held a Silver Tea and annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. H. Hansel Stembridge on Dec. 17 at 8 p.m.

A short program was conducted by Mrs. Lynn Hodges who brought a copy of The Bethlehem News reporting in modern news form of the Birth of Christ and a copy of nature's snow portrait of the Saviour actually photographed at the time it happened after a snowstorm.

Song sheets of Christmas songs were distributed to all women present and the singing of Christmas carols was enjoyed. Mrs. Stembridge made a recording of one of the carols and played it back immediately after taping it. Mrs. Beatrice Batz read two appropriate poems and the meeting adjourned for refreshments.

'Mission Circle' organized by Court St. Mary No. 1155

Stepped up holiday season activities are not deterring the Catholic Daughters of America in this area in their concern for people in various needs the world over.

To broaden activity in the World Missions program, a "Mission Circle" was organized in Court St. Mary No. 1155 of Daly City on Dec. 10 by Mrs. DeWitt Brunson of Burlingame, Archdiocesan chairman of World Missions for the C.D.A.

The initial meeting took place at the home of Mrs. Carl Rollandi on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Brunson present and Mrs. Laurence DeFanti, World Missions chairman for Court St. Mary, Mrs. Maurice Clark, Grand Regent, and Mrs. Louise Barnard, Mrs. James Gal-Gallagher, Mrs. Edward Nolan, Mrs. Harvey Mumford and Mrs. Rollandi.

Mrs. Brunson detailed the various needs and ways to participate.

Of special interest was the "Multi-purpose Food Plan" whereby meals and special nourishment for millions are made possible by the generous contributions from the American people through the "Meals for Millions" organization and distributed by missionary programs.

The course grained food supplement is a high protein fortified multi-purpose type that comes in three different formulas, one of which "looks like sawdust and tastes like turkey dressing." It can be chewed as is, or mixed in with all types of dishes. Three cents a day buys a meal for the hungry undernourished people in areas of the United States as well as places the world over — Mexico, Japan, India, Brazil, to mention a few.

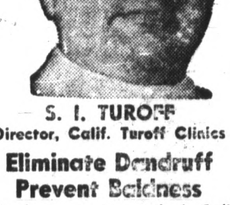

A fund was started to support this program.

The Mission Circle will meet once a month aside from the bi-monthly Court meetings, the next meeeting scheduled for Jan. 17, 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. James Gallagher. Hospital gowns will be made from used shirts, sheet will be utilized in cancer pads and leper bandages, cancelled stamps will be packaged for shipping to missionaries.

Next meeting of Court St. Mary will be at 8 p.m. on Jan. 2, at Our Lady of Perpetual Help hall.

Modern drama by SSF High school players

What do you make of it all? The world? The universe? And your position in it? These are some of the questions explored in the Hammletts' Drama Club presentation of "The Case of the Crushed Petunias" by Tennessee Williams.

The play concerns a young woman from Boston, whose sheltered life is abruptly interrupted by a salesman representing "life!"

The leading roles will be played by Raymond Lewis John and Kathleen Anne Maloney. Linda Nadine Fish and Donald Dean Rummell are playing the supporting roles.

The production will be unusual this year because Miss Dorothy Ann Lykens, present Drama Director at South San Francisco High School, and J. Jeffery Jones, Student Director, are presenting the play in the surrealistic manner.

Preceding this performance will be a Christmas concert by the South San Francisco High School Mixed Chorus under the direction of Mr. Robert Tharp.

The entire program is to be presented on Dec. 19 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium at South San Francisco High School. There will be no charge for admission. However, it is suggested that you come early if you want to get a good seat.

There will also be two assembly programs for the students at the school on the preceding day.

Respiratory program on 1964 budget

The Respiratory Disease Center program, sponsored by State Senator Richard J. Dolwig (R-San Mateo County(in the 1963 Legislature, has been placed in the preliminary 1964 State Public Health Department budget for consideration by Governor Edmund G. Brown and the State Finance Department.

Senator Dolwig, returning from a conference Monday with Governor Brown, indicated that strong support is needed by public spirited citizens interested in having the new program, since it needs top priority to gain approval.

The program, which was approved by both houses of the 1963 Legislature, would provide $240,000 for pilot programs in the north and in Southern California to work on the increasingly important area of respiratory ailments, Senator Dolwig stated.

It was vetoed by Brown after the 1963 session on grounds that it had a "low priority" in the schedule of public health projects which require "new" funds, and would therefore have to be postponed in favor of more vital programs.

Now, according to Senator Dolwig, the Respiratory Disease program is among the top five programs of the Public Health Department being considered by State Finance Department Chief Hale Champion and Governor Brown for the regular "short" budget session on the Legislature in February, 1964.

"I want to express my sincere appreciation to the many persons who have contacted me and asked how they can help get this measure enacted, and placed in the budget. 'Dolwig said. "I hope they will continue the good work, since this is the critical period when the program will either be eliminated from the budget, or will be approved for submission to the State Legislature in Februaryl."

Daly City Witnesses resume meet

Jehova's Witnesses of the Daly City Congregation will resume their regular schedule of meetings this week following their return from a weekend convention at the Scottish Rite Auditorium announced William Marks, presiding minister of the group. At the ministry development class this week, reports and material from the convention will be featured. Residents will benefit from the Bible instruction received as the Witnesses visit many of their friends and resume their preaching in the local community.

Mr. Marks announced that the convention climaxed with 2,100 in attendance for the public Bible talk, "The Bible Triumphs in a Scientific World." District Supervisor, Arthur L. Borchardt, from Watchtower headquarters in Brooklyn, New York, told the audience that, "science has very little to offer in regard to the solution of life's problems and the outstanding one for today is the social problem of man living at peace with his neighbor." Borchardt, who has been associated with the New York headquarters for over 25 years continued, "The Bible triumphs on this point with the simple command 'love your neighbor as you love yourself.'"

Convention highlights included the water baptism of 36 new ministers at the Saturday afternoon session.

Mr. Marks was among 18 presiding ministers attending a special meeting at the religious gathering designed to provide additional ministerial training for all members of each congregation. An invitation was extended to all local residents to attend the meetings of Jehova's Witnesses at the Kingdom Hall, 3435 Alemany Blvd.

Christmas and Chanukah

By Rabbi Solomon Shore, Congregation B'nai Israel

No other month brings more joy and happiness in the streets and homes of America as the month of December. Year after year, we see and we experience the same wonderful feelings.

Christians of all denominations, await with great anticipation, the most joyous of all their holidays—the Christmas and New Year.

A new spirit is born within the hearts of millions of Americans at this time of the year, the spirit of charity and compassion for those less fortunate in our society.

Every Christian walks around filled with noble thoughts, with thoughts of benevolence and good will toward all men.

There is another segment in our American society which also look forward with great joy in their hearts to this time of the year.

Six million Americans of the Jewish faith are now celebrating their most joyous holiday, "Chanukah, the Festival of Lights."

They too fill the streets and their homes with joy and merriment. A glorious page in the history of the Jewish people is being reenacted every year at this season in the religious schools and Synagogues. The young are being told about the great heroic deeds of the Maccabees—the Jewish heroes who fought the Greek armies in ancient Judea for the preservation of their faith.

Young and old participate during the eight-day festival in acts of charity, in social affairs. They create an atmosphere of good will toward their fellow Americans. Jewish homes are decorated with very colorful creations of various materials.

The "Menorah," represents the symbol of the gay spirit of Chanukah. It represents the Eternal light of Judaism—the light which the ancient Greeks under King Antiochus tried to extinguish.

Today, as in centuries past, Jewish people have found great hope and inspiration in this symbolic holiday. It is not always easy for people to celebrate Jewish holidays with gaiety and merriment. In some countries of the world, even today, people of the Jewish faith are denied the privilege of observing religious holidays. Religious freedom is curtailed and the free spirit of man shackled.

Only in a free society is it possible for free men to exercise their religious convictions. America is indeed a society where people of all religions have the freedom to exercise their sacred feelings.

Jewish children know and respect the religious feelings of the children who are celebrating Christmas. They are taught to respect the feelings of others at all times not only during their Holiday season. American Jews wholeheartedly extend best wishes to their Christian neighbors at this time of the year.

Christian children, on the other hand, have become accustomed in recent years to learning more about the Jewish holiday of Chanukah both at school and from their Jewish families.

Christmas and Chanukah are celebrated in the same month. Both preach brotherhood and goodwill toward men.

What Every Woman Should Know About Her Automobile

By WENDY WHEELER
Auto-Torium Feminine Driving Consultant

America has been called "The country on wheels," and while this term was to have applied to adults in their automobiles—it applies also to children and bicycles. If Santa brought your child a bicycle this year you have a wonderful opportunity to lay a foundation for safe driving in later years.

I checked with a police sergeant to ask what similarities there were beetween safe bicycle driving and safe automobile driving and found that exactly the same rules and regulations apply to both. Sgt. Foster said that parents can do more good—or harm—by example than anything else. He used the example of the boy he stopped one day for going through a stop sign. "Doesn't your father stop when he comes to a stop sign?" Sgt. Foster asked. "No," answered the boy, "only when there's a policeman around."

Hand signals should be used and Sgt. Foster recommends that for the child's safety he walk his bike across intersections.

The California Vehicle Code now states that the handlebars of a bicycle may be no higher than the rider's shoulders which makes the ridiculous high handlebar fad illegal.

Be sure that the brakes on your child's bike are in good working condition and you should caution him to be careful coasting downhill—bicycle brakes do not stop on a dime.

Sgt. Foster pointed out that a headlight and rear reflector are requested by law, and felt that a horn was a god idea. Auto-torium also has a supply of these important accessories which make wonderful gifts for the child who already has a bicycle.

Free copies of Wendy Wheeler's informative an dentertaining booklet, "What Every Woman Should Know . . . About Her Car," may be obtained at any Auto-torium store or by writing her in care of this newspaper.

Serra Bowl News

There were a batch of fine games and series bowled this past week at our cozy recreation center. In the 835 Scratch League on Wednesday, Cornell Gatewood, with 220, 219, 187—and Frank Mazzella with a booming 243—tied for high series honors with a pair of 623's. Not too far back was Gary Neil with a very neat 611. Nearby in the Wednesday Masters Handicap, Don Hall was taking the place apart with a fat 256 game. In the Twilighters Mixed Fives the leaders were Rich Hackett with 214, and Ted Lambertson with 575. Bob Greeno of the Tuesday Boozers punched out a fine 220/617 effort to lead his league. In the Sportsmen's Handicap it was Jim Colvin at 234 and Frank Machi with a nice 582. Karl Adams of the Lutheran Mixed Fives led his troup with 221/591 for the evening.

In the 750 Nightowls Frank Lee carved out a clean 222 and Henry Bonaparte was the series leader with a 591. In the All-Stars big Tom Lavin (and I call 6' 7", 260 pounds big) shot a 226/589. Jim Schon of the Amigos mixed fives matched Tom with an identical 589. Frank Siri, bowling in the State Comp Fives was high for his league with a solid 222/567 job on Monday evening. Over in the Metropolitan Mixed Fives Don Gee led the pack with 207/575.

In the Lions men's handicap league, Sam Kallas at 236 and Gene Coburn with a 597 for three were the toppers in their group. Barney Crosby, who also doubles as secretary in the Wednesday Automotive League, was series leader in the Monday night 813 Scratch League with his 562. Jack Thur took high game honors with his 226. The Gringos Handicap was headed by Ed Renz, who at 210 and 570 copped both singles and series honors. In the Sharpshooters Handicap Mike Gilson led with 234/576. For Deane Henly of the Bankers League, 220, 179 and a great 242 for 641 was sufficient to lead his fellow bankers. In the Belles and Beaus mixed fives, Ed Stephens' 211/547 was good enough to pace that league. The Gigolos, (gee, some of these leagues have funny names), were led by Don Spinela with a steady 214/605. Leaders in the Foresters Mixed Fives were Lee Michaletti with 227 and Mike Valenzano's 621 series.

The big action of the week was seen in the Thursday night Astronauts Mixed Fives, when up stepped Byron Beckes with a tremendous 263, to slightly overshadow a fine bit of kegling as demonstrated by Midge Silicani with his 232, 184, 2214/640.

Apparently, we put the kiss of death on our youngsters bowling in the Junior 900 Masters traveling league. No sooner did we mention in the form of boasting a bit, that our lads were leading the league, which meets on Sunday evenings around the Bay Area, than they promptly ran out and dumped the next three games. With the first half round rapidly drawing to a close the panic is beginning to set in, as they hope to wind up the round in first place to insure their being in the playoffs at the conclusion of the season. Fellows, we will speak no more, in an effort not to put the hex on you. But keep up the fine work.

In the Ladies leagues through the week there were some more respectable scores turned in this past week. In the Domestic Engineers, Millie Welling walked out with the honors for her 213/515. Serra Starters: Randi Friedland 171, Judy Mohr 426. Budget Busters: Yvonne Peters 178/451. Coffe Clatch: Maxine Cassinelli 208/536. Feather Dusters: Hazel White 187/476. Bowling Bags: Becky Casino 170/492. Rocketttes: Marie Pascucci 172/473. Morning Glories: Marge Somdahl 205/536. Friaretes: Carol Harais and Laura Olcese a 187 and Laura Olcese 481 series. Femme Fatales: Pat Gurkin 150/420.

In the Tuesday night Majorettes Ladies Handicap League it was Louise Yaquinto again with another fine performance evidenced by her 212/536.

Again I would like to remind our bowlers that Billy Mack, our well-known professional and instructor, holds his bowling classes every Saturday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. These classes are open to everyone regardless of ability (or lack of same) and there is no charge for the one-hour sessions. Billy is a truly great teacher of the fundamental and finer points of the game and we urge one and all to take advantage of his classes.

Don't forget to plan on attending Serra Bowl's third annual New Years' Eve party Dec. 31. Tickets are now on sale at the bowl for $12.50 and include free parking, hat and coat checking, all the prime rib dinner you can eat, unlimited bowling, dancing to the Dave Larsen trio, and all you can drink. The party is limited in number so make your reservations early and pick up your tickets soon.

The Pelicans were shut-out 4-0 by Pacific Manor and the Linda Martians were downed by the Nettles 4-1.

The fullbacks were: Dennis Smith, Bob Stillwell, Joe Anible, Lance DeRoo, and Bob Ross.

The first half ended in a scoreless tie 0-0.

Midway in the second half, center forward Mario Sandoval scored on a kick from 10 yards out for the games only score.

Salesian trounces W'moor

Westmoor's bigger Rams, the varsity basketball squad, took a 62-73 drubbing Friday from Salesian of Richmond on their court across the bay.

Twenty-five fouls against Westmoor plus 19 good free-throws from Salesian did nothing for Westmoor, but a lot for the Richmond men.

Salesian recorded only 15 fouls.

The Rams sank 10 of their 17 free-throws.

High scorers for the Rams were John Price with 15 and Mike Morrison with 12.

Eyes in the back

Jerry Donovan of Westmoor made the play of the day with two seconds left in the third quarter by sinking a shot from mid-court with his back to the basket.

Coach Tony Giamona used all 15 of his squad in the game.

Art of photography taught Daly City students

In Daly City, high school students are being taught the knowledge and art of modern photography.

Through what is one of the most extensive courses in Northern California, Jefferson High School students are offered photography as a tool for the successful use of their leisure time and to acquaint them with the art as a possible life career.

The man who teaches the course is highly qualified and the classroom is outfitted especially for the subject.

Gil Toibin, the instructor, is a trained photographer who has been educated to teach in a public school.

Jefferson's photo lab and classroom is one of the most up-to-date and best equipped of its kind in California.

The course operates six full periods a day with Toibin as the full-time instructor assisted by another part - time teacher.

Qualified

Toibin is into his sixth year as a teacher and his fourth as an instructor of photography.

His qualifications include a degree from San Francisco State College; years of experience as a free lance news photographer; pictures published in San Francisco newspapers and a literary magazine; and a photo show in a San Francisco gallery.

He has studied with Wynn Bullock — an internationally known photographer—and has assisted Bullock in teaching a photography course at San Francisco State.

Additionally, Toibin has studied with Ruth Bernhard, another well-known photographer.

Began in 1941

Photography classes were introduced in Jefferson's main curriculum in 1941, says John Mongan, principal of Jefferson.

The course was originated by James Ferguson, the second superintendent of the Jefferson Union High School District.

"Ferguson was interested in photography as a hobby and far-sightedly attempted to educate young people for the successful use of their leisure time, explains Mongan.

"This was a concept not generally accepted in the early '30s in the secondary education field," adds Mongan.

Support

The course at Jefferson has had the continuing endorsement of Edward Morgan, the present superintendent of the high school district.

Morgan was particularly impressed by the state of the program in 1959 when the old photo lab was renovated and enlarged to allow a full-time teacher and a full class load.

His influence since that time has insured the continuation of the subject at the school.

Between 1941 and 1959 additional equipment was added to the original limited amount and the photo lab operated in one of the annex buildings demolished this year.

Morgan worked with Toibin and the architect of the new Jefferson plant in designing one of the most modern school photography labs in the state where the class is presently conducted.

It's SPARE TIME

at the Westlake Bowl

By Jim Grealish

The 99'ers Mixed Fives League produced some hot competition Wednesday night as Kathy MacEachern and Bette Levesque tied with a 537 series total, Kathy shooting a 215 game and Bette a 201. In the men's department Tom Millane with 216-605 and Wally Kearney with 214-600 fought for top honors.

Tom Franza bombed the pins in the 920 All-Stars as he posted a terrific 253 game and 647 series followed by Bill Sargent with 221 and 612.

In the 839 Scratch League, George Vittori led his Sai-Wu team to three victories as he topped the league with a 218 game and 614 series.

Peggy Narducci rolled 221-571 and Del Coburn 198-546 to lead the Ball and Chain Mixed Fives for the week.

Marg Lawson and Rose Marie Ownes shared top honors in the Tea Timers' League Tuesday afternoon as Mary rolled a 521 series and Rose Marie a 210 game. Millie Belli and Lucille Bipes both converted the 5-7 split.

Our Junior 900 bowlers starts its fight to regain first place next Sunday at Millbrae when they take on the tough Castle Lanes team. A strong rooting section from Westlake would help them at 6 p.m.

Mary Dudley and Terry Warde shared honors in the Tuesday morning St. Emydius Mothers' Guild League as Mary rolled a 176 game and Terry a 462 series. Split converters were Carrie Futrell 3-7-8, Peg Nurisso 5-10 and Lee Rentschler 5-10.

Laurel Lausman left no doubt as to who took lady bowler of the week honors as she rolled a tremendous 590 series on games of 204-154-232 —a mere 209 pins over her 127 average Fellow YWCA bowlers in the Tuesday morning league gave her a standing round of applause.

Our congratulations to Ruth Noll of the Kings and Queens 850 Scratch League who took first place in Class A of the San Francisco Bowlers Victory Legion Rolloff. Ruth rolled games of 216-189-161-202 for a 768 total to win the right to represent San Francisco in the State Rolloff in Santa Rosa next March.

The magic number Tuesday night was 566 as Harold Cassidy led the Early Fives and Bob Belluomini led the Country Club Handicap. Harold rolled a 229 high game while Bob's best effort was a 200 game.

Alice Nyberg topped the two hundred mark for the first time of her career as she rolled a 209 game in the Starliters league as Doris Cunningham took high series with 501.

Tony Greco rolled a 201 game and 583 series as he topped the 805 Scratch League for the week.

In the Third Annual Bowling Tournament of the San Francisco Coaches Association, Al Elchinoff took first prize with a "blind average" total of 614. Bob Sargent took second place with 597 as over 50 San Francisco high school coaches competed.

Next Sunday Dec. 29, at 10 p.m. marks the end of the third round in The News Call-Bulletin Christmas Singles Classiic. The House Finals, with the top eight bowlers in each class competing, will be held Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 4 and 5.

Now in progress at Westlake are the two "bowlers" tournaments which annually give bowlers of all averages the opportunity to win large cash prizes for a low entry fee. These are the Northern California Bowling Proprietors' Association Men's and Women's Team Handicap Tournament. The local eliminations now under way are the first step leading to the National Championships held in June for women and August for men.

Ben Franklin Soccer team undefeated

Last week the Benjamin Franklin seventh and eighth grade soccer teams won their last two games to end the season undefeated. On Tuesday the eighth grade defeated Alta Loma 1-0 and the seventh won 2-0. Friday they traveled to Brisbane and the eighth won 5-0 and the seventh 2-0.

In closing out the season at Brisbane the eighth grade team put together their best offensive display of the season.

PAL Bears football champs

Omar Grimes and his PAL Bears put another Touch Football Championship on the shelf.

The Bears have accumulated a perfect record in the Daly City Recreation Department's 8th grade Touch Football League finishing with a 5-0 record.

Final opponent for the Bears was the OLPH Steamrollers.

Getting off to a good start, the Steamrollers bogged down when their star quarterback Steve Gudelj suffered a 1st quarter injury.

Mike Gugliemoni moved in and took over.

PAL Eagles win over OLPH 26-0

Rich Brewer's PAL Eagles assured themselves that they were invincible this season by winning over OLPH 26-0.

The game was closer than the score indicated.

The Eagles broke open in the second quarter with 2 fast scores.

Fred Balletto faded back and hit Larry Belfrage with a quick 10 yard TD pass. This was followed by Gary St. Clair picking off a goal pass and running for a TD. Al Luzzi duplicated St. Clair's performance for a touchdown also.

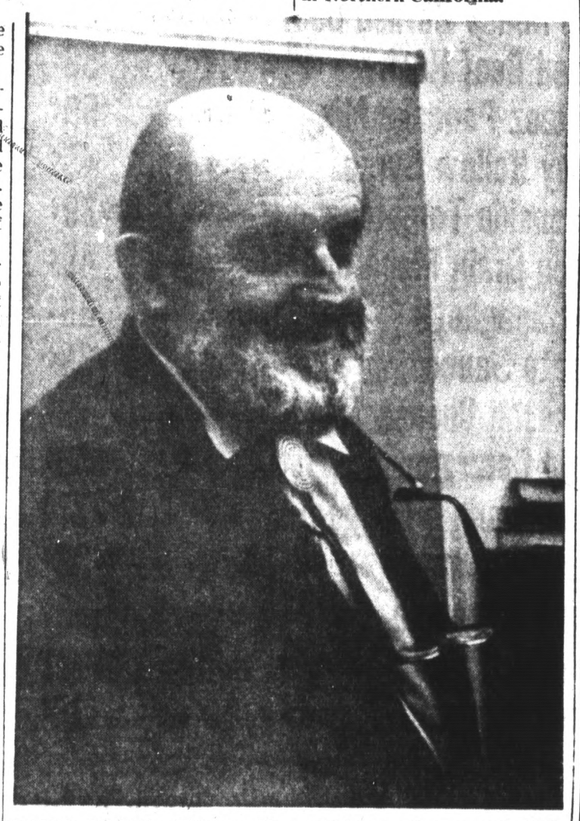

The final Eagle score came when Larry Belfrage scored 15 yards on a TD run. This gave the Eagles a perfect 8-0 record this season.

Second place in the league will be decided between OLPH Golds and PAL Raiders.

The PAL Raiders edged by the PAL Jets 13-12.

Mike Kosturas and Rich Saiz were the big guns for the Raiders in the win.

John Burrus starred for the Jets scoring twice on long runs.

ANSEL ADAMS—This world-renowned photographer recently spent the afternoon at Jefferson High School where he was the guest of John Mongan, Jefferson's principal, and Gil Toibin, photographer instructor. Adams lectured to the photography class on techniques, light in photography and his experiences and difficulties as a photographer. Adams visit was the result of an invitation extended after Jefferson's class had visited his exhibit, "The Eloquent Light" at the De Young Museum, San Francisco. de facto segregation

Variety of solutions for difficult problem

(Editor's note: This is the third in a series of articles by Leonard Kreidt of the Education News Service on one of the toughest issues facing California today and in the years ahead: de facto segregation in the public schools and the numerous difficult problems involved in bringing it to an end.)

Perhaps the best gauge of the difficulty of eliminating de facto segregation in California's schools is the number and variety of solutions proposed.

They range from direct, immediate attacks, such as the proposal to bus students cross-town to achieve racial balance throughout a district, to long-range plans for school site selection so as to serve multi-racial areas.

Open enrollment is being tried in a number of districts. Its success has been far less than spectacular. It allows the transfer of students to another school if the receiving school has space available and if the transfers will aid in correcting racial imbalance.

According to Wilson Riles, consultant to the State Department of Education's Commission on Teacher Employment Practices, open enrollment can be effective in school districts, but he does not feel it approaches a final solution.

The weakness in the plan appears to be that the parents of transferees must take responsibility for transporting their children to the chosen school. This means a financial burden, normally, for a segment of the population least able to afford it—the minority groups. As a consequence, the plan is getting far less "play" than anticipated.

This plan shares major objections with the busing proposition. In both cases, students would be attending school outside their neighborhoods with consequent disruption of their social contacts both at home and at school.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Max Rafferty has pointed out that the necessary travel would involve loss of time and probable exclusion from extracurricular activities. The distance from school would also make parent-teacher conferences and PTA connections difficult to maintain.

Notwithstanding these objections, State Board President Thomas W. Braden declared last April that "if any busing is necessary because schools are overcrowded and students must be transported, the busing ought to be accomplished in a manner that will help conquer segregation."

Gerrymandering of attendance zone boundaries to bring children of varying ethnic backgrounds into the same school building is a favored solution, but with some qualifications. Educators have been fairly unanimous in rejecting a redrawing of boundaries purely to effect a racial balance if, at the same time, it interferes with sound educational values.

For example, the California Association of Secondary School Administrators (CASSA) adopted a policy in September which opposes gerrymandering whose purpose is the segregation of any group of pupils, but also opposes "the aggressive structuring of schools for a purpose other than the education of the children of those schools."

Another plan, which is sure to draw criticism because of its cost, proposes abandonment of some existing schools and the building of new ones in strategic locations to insure racial balance.

Some eastern cities such as New York, Philadelphia and Detroit have established specialized schools which draw enrollment from the entire city on the basis of ability in a particular school's specialty, such as music, science, arts or vocational crafts.

While some integrationists see merit in the plan, the Los Angeles Unified District Board of Education's ad hoc Committee on Equal Educational Opportunity had this to say in its report to the Board:

". . . it is not educationally advisable for a public school system to segregate highly talented pupils in schools away from the mainstream of public secondary education and thus deprive the schools they would leave of their leadership and example."

In Pasadena, new "controlled option" plan will be tried for the first time next year. It involves assigning all students except Negroes on a geographic basis with a specified percentage of seats in each of three high schools left vacant for Negro students. The Negro children may then elect which school to attend up to the limit of each school's capacity. Over a three-year period beginning with 1964-65 the percentage of Negroes will be brought gradually to an average 15.8 per cent in each school.

Princeton, New Jersey, is cited often for a solution in which two neighboring schools, one all-white, the other all-Negro, were integrated by being included in the same attendance zone. The first four grades from both schools now attend one of the schools, the top four the other.

W'lake Times Yule rhymes

By JACK WOOD

'Twas the day before Christmas, and in Daly City, I sat at my typewriter, feeling quite witty.

My stockings were buried so neat in my shoes, that I felt insulated from any cold news.

The shoppers in Westlake were happy and gay, and spending their money in the friendliest way.

Up billfolds! up purses! up dollars and pennies! the ways to spend money are varied and many.

The robbers and pickpockets were feeling quite squirrelly and doing their Christmas shoftlifting early.

While on Thornton Beach, the landslides were quiet; the hole nicely filled with a dirt-packers diet.

And Operation Santa Claus was well under way, with toys and food for the needy on Christmas Day.

Then into the Chamber of Commerce, two violinists appeared, wearing smiles and jollities instead of a beard.

They fiddled and fiddled and were such fun to see; nobody noticed they were playing off-key.

The city electricians dug a deep hole and put in a Christmas tree as high as a flag pole. They placed it upon a hillside so high that lights from the thing did shine in the sky.

L. Bocci and Sons were feeling so gay, they decorated their tombstones in Colma the most beautiful way.

Yes, all these Yule jollities filled me with such glee, that I almost forgot to buy a Christmas tree. Which is what one deserves for playing Yule rhymes on a typewriter key.

Shopping center planned for San Bruno

A gigantic $75 million development including a 70-acre regional shopping center, more than 3,000 apartments, comunity center, medical center and recreation center is planned jointly by Consolidated Lands Incorporated and the group of owners of the large unused acreage surrounding the San Bruno Naval Base.

These plans are dependent upon the approval and co-operation of the Planning Commission and City Council of San Bruno, and plans will be submitted to them shortly.

The regional center, known presently as "San Bruno Plaza" (but which may be changed to "Northland" or some other short and catchy name) is planned to have upward of 100 stores, including two major department stores, a junior department store and virtually every known type of retail establishment. It is expected to have annual retail sales of over $60 million.

It will be located in the area bounded by El Camino Real, San Bruno Ave., Junipero Serra Blvd. and projected route of Freeway 229, in San Bruno.

Dolwig asks legislature San Mateo College study

Senator Richard J. Dolwig (R-San Mateo County) today announced there is definitely a chance that San Mateo State College can be placed on the Governor's special call lists for the extraordinary session of the Legislature in February.

Dolwig attended a meeting of legislative leaders Monday with Governor Edmund G. Brown at the State Capital to discuss the subjects that may be placed on the lists, which is solely within the discretion of the Governor. The extra-ordinary session of the Legislature runs concurrently with the regular budget session.

Among the subjects that the San Mateo State Senator requested be taken up at the 1964 special session were the San Mateo State College, and additional Superior Court judgeships.

"I can report that Governor Brown has received a number of telegrams and letters from citizens of San Mateo County, "Dolwig said.

"Governor Brown indicated he is beginning to understand the urgency of the need for a San Mateo State College. However, he plans to discuss this with Warren Christopher, Chairman of the State Coordinating Council for Higher Education, to see if the Priority Report of the Council can't be speeded up."

Senator Dolwig said he hopes to have a meeting with concerned citizens and groups in San Mateo County either after Christmas, or after New Year's Day, to discuss the need for public support to convince Brown that San Mateo County cannot afford to wait another year or two, or three for the Coordinating Council to report. "The Coordinating Council could have endorsed the recommendations of the State College Board of Trustees last May instead of sitting back with the attitude that it want-ed to wait and see if some other solution might not turn up," Dolwig said. "I believe now is the time for all persons concerned with the educational crisis that is approaching in San Mateo County to tell Governor Brown we cannot wait another six months or 3 years for the Coordinating Council to do the work it should have done last year," Dolwig declared.

"Unless we move as rapidly as possible to get a San Mateo State College started, a large number of high school graduates in this county will be denied a chance to attain a four-year college education. We cannot afford to lose the year to three years that will go down the drain if there is further postponement in accepting the recommendations of the State College board of trustees.

"It is a fact that the University of California at Berkeley or Santa Cruz are required to limit undergraduates enrollments to the top 12 percent of the graduates from high school. It is an additional fact that San Jose and San Francisco State are now giving enrollment priority to residents of Santa Clara and San Francisco Counties.

"This means the San Mateo County graduate with low or even medium financial resources is prevented from attending a four-year college education institution because of the place where he happens to live, a discrimination of the worst sort."

Cats take touch tackle crown

The Bender Roofing Cats nailed down the crown in the Daly City Recreation Department's 7th Grade Touch Tackle League.

It was no easy task as the PAL Braves made them earn every point of their 14-0 victory. The iron curtain around quarterback Joel Carrara made the difference.

Robert Abbott, Steve McGuigan, Don Ragland and Dennis Links gave Carrara all the time in the world to spot his receivers. After several completions, Carrara hit Dave Belli for the first TD. He then ran over the PAT.

The final score came when Belli on a reverse from Carrara tossed a touchdown strike to Don Getchel.

Adding the fourteenth point was Jean Guzman on a run up the middle. This win gave Bob Abbott's Bender Roofing Cats a 1 and 1 record which hands them the crown.

Snow trip planned for junior teens

Feb. 8 is the day set for the Snow Trip sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department's six junior high teen clubs.

Buses will leave the War Memorial Community Center and Ben Franklin School at 5:30 a.m. for the all-day event to the Dodge Ridge-Pinecrest area of the Sierras.

Skiing at Dodge Ridge and snow games and play at Pinecrest have been planned.

Snow sculpture contests, snow ball "fights" and individual toboggan races are slated for the program. A hot dinner at the Sonora Inn on the return trip is also a part of the day's plans.

Cost to each club member is $5.50 which includes chartered bus transportation; insurance and the dinner meal. The member's club will pay the balance of the trip cost.

A $1.00 non-refundable deposit reserves a spot for the club member on the trip. The balance of the money must be paid by Jan. 24.

Permission slips are available from club advertisers. Junior teen club members are urged to get their reservation in early as only a limited amount of spaces are available for the trip.

Drama unit acts in class productions

Concluding a drama unit which explored the development and structure of various types of plays, Westmoor High School English and Drama teacher Mr. Robin Jackson guided his sophomore English students as they wrote and acted in their own classroom productions.

Each of Mr. Jackson's two English classes as a group formulated essential characters and sketched out a brief plot. Then, divided into small groups, the students improvised by fitting these basic ingredients to their own setting and imaginative circumstances.

After extensive rehearsal and the ironing out of minute details, several of the plays were recorded on tape and played back, providing listeners with an opportunity to write critical reviews of what they heard.

Plays adapted from the basic plot were varied in their appeal. A murder mystery entitled MURDER IN THE FORM OF A DAISY was written by Penny Dennings, Linda Jaeger, Joelle Kimbrell, and Nancy Moore.

A sea-going adventure story, A SINNER'S ENDING, was told by Ed DeMartini, George Gane, Patrick Henry, and Al Newcomb. Authors of WEIRD JOURNEY, a science fiction piece, included Linda Blue, Alana Silva, and Patsy Phillips.

Believing that students should be given every opportunity to improve their technique with the pen, Mr. Jackson states that succeeding units will allow budding authors to demonstrate their writing skills in the field of biography.
